BY MATTHEW BLAKE

The Beverly Hills City Council voted 4-1 at its Sept. 20 regular meeting to conditionally approve the Cheval Blanc Beverly Hills hotel project. Councilmember John Mirisch cast the dissenting vote.

The Council must revisit the project at an Oct. 11 meeting at which they will review a “draft Development Agreement” that is being hashed out by LVMH Moët Hennessy Louis Vuitton (LVMH), Mayor Lili Bosse, and Councilmember Lester Friedman. According to a presentation from the city’s Planning Department, the development agreement will include an economic analysis and fiscal impact report.

“This doesn’t work without a development agreement that recognizes the city’s contribution to this,” said Vice Mayor Julian Gold at the meeting.

Against Mirisch’s objection, Gold successfully pushed to have the Council vote on approving the project at the meeting. Gold couched the development agreement as a

Three Burglary Suspects Arrested

BY OMAR REYES BENÍTEZ

Three suspects were arrested on Sept. 21 in connection with a commercial burglary that took place on March 22. The robbery targeted Luxury Jewels of Beverly Hills on South Beverly Drive. On that date, up to six suspects exited a vehicle wearing masks and hooded sweatshirts. They carried crowbars, axes and sledgehammers. The suspects then shattered the front windows of the jewelry store and stole several pieces of expensive jewelry from the display case. They proceeded to flee the scene on foot, abandoning the stolen vehicle they had used to arrive.

According to news reports, approximately $5 million in merchandise was stolen. The Beverly Hills Police Department (BHPD) immediately responded to the burglary scene, set up a camera trailer and provided extra security patrols on South Beverly Drive.

The incident was captured and posted online in videos by eyewitnesses. One video shows the suspects frantically grabbing the stolen goods in broad daylight, as bystanders watch in shock. A neighboring jeweler, Wesley Aframian, saw the incident and

Record Audience Expected for An Evening with the Mayor Sept. 28

BY ANA FIGUEROA

Beverly Hills Mayor Lili Bosse will deliver the annual State of the City Address at “An Evening with the Mayor” on Sept. 28 at the historic Greystone Mansion. Presented by the Beverly Hills Chamber of Commerce, the sold-out event is expected to attract a record-setting number of attendees.

“We should have close to 700 people, which is the largest audience I’ve seen. It is certainly the largest Chamber event we’ve had this calendar year. We’re very excited to see everyone coming out for this,” Todd Johnson, President and CEO of the Chamber, told the Courier.

The evening traditionally brings together government, business, and law enforcement leaders, as well as residents primed to hear about city initiatives. Networking is a key component of the event, as evidenced by the fact that the program begins with a mixer from 4:30-6 p.m.

He taught himself the language and wrote several books before producing this film that channeled the French New Wave and explored the psychology of interracial relationships as well as France's seemingly contradictory attitudes about race. "Nothing But a Man," directed by Michael Roemer, follows the story of a railroad worker whose burgeoning activism threatens his relationship with a preacher's daughter in a small town. It was made during the summer of 1963 where civil rights activist Medgar Evers was murdered and the March on Washington occurred. ## Arts and Culture Commission Discusses Fate of Mural

The Matsuyama on Canon Drive

BY OMAR REYES BENÍTEZ

The Arts and Culture Commission met at its regular meeting on Sept. 13 to discuss future events, review the extension of the closure on North Canon Drive and meet new members of the team.

The first presentation to the commission was from Public Works Department Project Manager Christine Chung, who gave an update on the North Canon Drive closure.

The closure is a 20-foot-tall wall that was installed in 2019 to alleviate the effects of construction on the Metro Purple (D) Line, intended to help with noise, dust and traffic control. At a Study Session on Sept. 12, City Council agreed that the closure has been successful and approved an extension of the closure to June 2023. However, the commission's larger concern is with the future of the mural painted directly on the wall.

Commission Selects Embrace Civility Award Recipient

BY OMAR REYES BENÍTEZ

At its Sept. 15 meeting, the Human Relations Commission selected the recipient of its Embrace Civility Award. The commission also heard updates on a variety of programs throughout the city, including Mental Health Awareness, Homelessness, and Diversity, Equity and Inclusion initiatives.

The Embrace Civility Award is an achievement awarded to an individual or group that acts as a role model of positive behavior and has a high regard for the well-being of their community. The commission selected the still unnamed candidate for his active and continuous efforts to better the community. "He gives and donates an incredible amount of time and resources and is uber involved in the city," said Commission Vice Chair Laura Margo.

Commission Chair Noelle Freeman voted for the candidate because of his uplifting presence throughout the city. "His work spans over decades and it feels like he needs to be honored in our community as someone who is a representative of civility, kindness and love for Beverly Hills," said Freeman.

The recipient will be honored and publicly recognized at an October City Council meeting.

The award is given as a part of Embrace Civility Month, which is October. Throughout the month, the commission will promote good camaraderie through events, banners and posters. The commission will also be accepting donations for four different charities at the Oct. 23 Farmer's Market. The participating charities have yet to be announced.

The commission also heard from the National Alliance on Mental Illness (NAMI) Westside Los Angeles Co-President Dorit Haroni and Resource Organizer Debbie Brazil as part of the Mental Health Awareness monthly agenda item. NAMI is an organization that commits itself to advocating for, educating and supporting all individuals affected by mental illness. Haroni shared her family's own experiences struggling with mental health and why the issue has

Public Input Sought on Traffic Calming Guidelines

The City of Beverly Hills has released a Draft Neighborhood Traffic Calming Program (NTCP) “How to” guide for public review. The proposed program is aimed at reducing speeding and cut-through vehicle traffic on residential streets. It will also help implement physical design elements and strategies such as speed humps, traffic circles, signage and more to create safer neighborhood streets.

The Draft NTCP includes various potential options, as well as step-by-step instructions for the community to request and obtain approval for traffic calming measures on their own streets.

Residents are encouraged to review the Draft NTCP on the city’s website at beverlyhills.org/trafficcalming and provide their feedback by Oct. 14 in one of the following ways:

Mayor's Mental Wellness Series Continues with Deepak Chopra

BY OMAR REYES BENÍTEZ

On Sept. 23, Mayor Lili Bosse will welcome prolific author and integrative medicine expert Deepak Chopra to Beverly Hills for a live conversation. The event will occur at the Crescent Drive side of City Hall and will serve as the third installment of the Mayor's Mental Wellness Series.

Chopra is renowned around the globe for his expertise in medicine and careful dissection of where it intersects with spirituality. He's written over 90 books, some of which have gone on to become New York Times Best Sellers and translated into 43 different languages. Chopra is also the founder of the Chopra Foundation, an organization committed to improving global health and spiritual knowledge; Chopra Global, a healthcare company that utilizes both science and spirituality; and co-founder of a new global initiative called Never Alone, which connects international communities to share well-being resources with one another. He also works as a Clinical Professor of Family Medicine and Public Health at the University of California, San Diego and serves as a Senior Scientist with the Gallup Institute.

Chopra has dedicated his work to debunking the notion that Western medicines are the most progressive and effective ways of treating illness. He argues that the mind and body are chemically tethered, and that holistic wellness can be achieved once that relationship is acknowledged and nourished.

Chopra released two books this year, "Abundance: The Inner Path to Wealth" and "Mindful Moments: Thoughts to Nourish Your Body and Soul," both fitting neatly into the mission of his career: contributing to a happier and healthier world. "It is my intention to reach a critical mass of over 1 billion people," Chopra told the Courier in a statement. "I am deeply grateful to Mayor Lili Bosse for her support and carrying this message to mainstream audiences. I hope she is an inspiration to the mayors all over the country."

This will be an encore appearance in Beverly Hills for Chopra. He was invited during Bosse's last term as Mayor in 2017 for her Seek Original Unique Learning (S.O.U.L.) Sessions. Similar to the Mental Wellness Series, the S.O.U.L. sessions were a part of Bosse's previous "#bhhealthycity" campaign that promoted a healthy lifestyle, as a means of getting a healthy community. "Well-being is how you think about your entire life," said Chopra at the previous event. "Today, we know that physical, emotional well-being is linked to community well-being, to well-being in our jobs, ultimately to financial well-being."

Bosse kicked off her current Mental Wellness Series with a conversation with best-selling author and Holocaust survivor Dr. Edith Eger and her daughter, Dr. Marianne Engle. The second event was a community dance party that encouraged everyone to get outside and move.

The City of Beverly Hills Instagram shared a few uplifting words from Chopra, in a post to promote the event. "When we have the experience, all the time, that we are both the lover and the beloved, both the seer and the scenery, both the observer and the observed, when we experience that deep knowingness, that's love," he said. "This is true love, which is eternal; not just a romantic idea or a sentiment, true love."

Review the City's Draft Neighborhood Traffic Calming Program

The City is developing guidelines for residents who may request future traffic calming devices on their streets.

Traffic calming includes infrastructure and programs to reduce vehicle speeding and cut-through traffic on residential streets.

Review the Draft Neighborhood Traffic Calming Program at beverlyhills.org/trafficcalming and tell us what you think.

Provide your comments by Friday, October 14th!

Japanese artist Tomokazu Matsuyama designed the mural. Matsuyama was contracted by the city in 2019 under the conditions that it would be a temporary piece and that if the city wishes to preserve, sell or relocate the mural, the city must get approval from the artist.

At the time of installation, skinning the wall was deemed too costly, with prices reaching up to $120,000, while the artwork itself cost approximately $125,000. With the price of the skinning and standing contractual obligations, it was decided to paint the mural directly onto the wall and destroy it once the North Canon Drive closure is no longer needed.

Commissioners were disappointed with having no option but to dispose of the art piece. "I just think it's a shame that this has been an effective piece for us and that we can't reuse or repurpose it," said Commissioner Maralee Beck. "We should be thinking about this before we begin to again spend. It was $125,000 to get this painted, that's a lot of art money."

Commissioner Deborah Frank referred to the situation as a "teachable moment," "The gut feeling is if they can save the Berlin Wall, why can't we take a chunk of this? But we would have to renegotiate the entire contract," she noted.

After the closure presentation, the commission was introduced to the new Recreation Supervisor of the Arts and Culture Division Corrina Lesser and Recreation Supervisor of the Recreation and Parks Division Norma Mower. Lesser has a background in publishing and is eager to apply her years of experience in literature programming to create engaging events in Beverly Hills. Mower has worked in the Recreation Department at the city of Glendale for the past 20 years, specializing in youth programs, facilities maintenance and city events.

Director of Community Services Jenny Rogers explained to the commission that the selection process had been a rigorous one. "We know they are going to make incredible contributions, not just to our department but to the high quality of life and the community's engagement around arts and recreation," said Rogers. She also introduced the new Community Services Manager Magdalena Davis.

The commission concluded its business proceedings with an update on the Beverly Hills Fall Art Show happening on Oct. 15 and 16.

The commission previewed the invitations, with artwork from Community Service's Graphic Designer Laura Fergusson, and also looked ahead to next year's Spring Art Show, which will be the 50th anniversary of the show.

At the upcoming Art Show, guests will have the opportunity to see art from over 230 artists, ranging across 11 different mediums and 14 different states. ● a strong significance this month. (September is Suicide Prevention Awareness Month.) Brazil presented the commission with all of the resources NAMI offers to support positive mental health, like family-to-family support groups, counseling, classes and community office hours.

After the presentation from NAMI, the commission received updates on projects combating homelessness. Jill Kline, Field Deputy of Los Angeles City Councilmember Paul Koretz of District 5, discussed how cities are working together against homelessness and gave updates on some areas of concern in Beverly Hills. As early as next week, a new amendment to Los Angeles anti-camping laws will go into effect. The anti-camping law designates specific areas where sheltering is prohibited, and the amendment will ban setting up shelters within 500 feet of any school or licensed daycare. The City of Los Angeles is currently providing clean-up and the Los Angeles Police Department will monitor encampments on the median along Burton Way. They are hoping to extend similar enforcements on the medians along San Vicente Boulevard as soon as they install the proper signage.

Continuing on the topic of homelessness, the commission then heard from Kevin Conner and Edwin Chavous from the Beverly Hills Outreach Team (BHOT). BHOT provides services to the houseless community, connecting them with family or the appropriate facility. At the commission meeting, Conner and Chavous gave updates on the work they are doing as part of the Home Again Program. As a part of the program that started earlier this year, BHOT has now provided eight family reunifications. "They are getting to go back home and start again," said Conner. "That is the goal, to get the unhoused people here in the City of Beverly Hills back to where they can have a fresh start and be housed again."

The commission concluded the meeting by exchanging celebratory statements in regard to the first installment in their Critical Conversations series on Aug 24. The Critical Conversations are a part of their ongoing Diversity, Equity and Inclusion Initiative, in which the commission prioritizes policies and programs that promote the representation of all cultures and groups of people. Donzaleigh Abernathy is an actress, author and civil rights activist and she was the series' inaugural speaker. Abernathy grew up during the Civil Rights Movement and her father was Ralph David Abernathy, a close advisor of Martin Luther King Jr. In her speech, she touched on the experience she had being raised during such a tumultuous time in United States history.

"It was almost like being behind the scenes of the Civil Rights Movement," said Interim Clinical Coordinator Enisha Clark. "Viewing it through the eyes and lens of a child, I think it really brought the community together." ●

Beverly Hills, CA 90210

The Planning Commission of the City of Beverly Hills, at its REGULAR meeting on October 13, 2022, will hold a public hearing beginning at 1:30 PM, or as soon thereafter as the matter may be heard to consider:

AN ORDINANCE OF THE CITY OF BEVERLY HILLS TO AMEND BEVERLY HILLS MUNICIPAL CODE SECTIONS RELATED TO LOT LINE ADJUSTMENTS AND DEVELOPMENTS THAT CROSS JURISDICTIONAL BOUNDARIES

Pursuant to prior discussions held by the City Council, staff will bring forth a draft ordinance for review by the Planning Commission. This draft ordinance is intended to replace the Lot Line Adjustment Urgency Ordinance (Urgency Ordinance No. 21-O-2833), which will expire in January 2023. This urgency ordinance was enacted to prohibit lot line adjustments that would either create or expand a lot that crosses the city boundary, and created an allowance for a variance to be granted for cases in which an undue and unusual hardship resulted from this prohibition. The proposed regulations included in the draft ordinance are summarized as follows, and the Beverly Hills Municipal Code (BHMC) section is provided if applicable:

- BHMC §10-2-805, 10-2-806: Amend the lot line adjustment procedural language to clarify that the Director of Community Development may forward a lot line adjustment application to the Planning Commission for review;
- Create a new regulation to require that any development crossing the jurisdictional boundaries of the City of Beverly Hills apply for and receive a discretionary entitlement (an R-1 permit), for which the initial reviewing authority is the Planning Commission. However, this discretionary entitlement may not be required if such project is otherwise subject to another discretionary entitlement that requires review by the Planning Commission; and
- Other clarifications and amendments that may be required to bring existing BHMC sections into consistency with the proposed new regulations.

Staff will recommend that the Planning Commission review the draft ordinance, and adopt a draft resolution recommending approval of the draft ordinance to the City Council.

This project has been assessed in accordance with the authority and criteria contained in the California Environmental Quality Act (CEQA), the State CEQA Guidelines, and the environmental regulations of the City. Since the project is not related to any specific development proposal and do not enable any physical changes in the environment, there is no possibility that it may have a significant effect on the environment. In addition, the project reflects minor changes in land use limitations, and do not result in changes to land use or density. Accordingly, the Planning Commission will consider a recommendation to find the project categorically exempt from CEQA pursuant to Sections 15061(b)(3) and 15305 of Title 14 of the California Code of Regulations because it can be seen with certainty that there is no possibility that a change to the regulations related to medical uses would have a significant effect on the environment.

condition that would “tie a bow” around the distinctive project. “It makes our next step a little easier,” Gold said.

At the five-hour meeting that wrapped up just before midnight, Bosse praised the architecturally unique, ultra-luxury hotel on the 400 block of North Rodeo Drive. She called the project “visionary,” a peek into the future, and “everything I believe our community is about.”

The mayor also complimented LVMH for working with both the city’s Planning Commission and Planning Department. Bosse repeatedly noted it was “interesting” that after some initial project concerns – mostly around alley, sidewalk and road congestion – there was just one member of the public voicing his objection at the meeting, a representative of Unite Here Local 11.

LVMH gave “one of the best presentations I’ve ever seen,” Bosse said.

LVMH made modifications following multiple city meetings, including widening the pedestrian walkway in front of the building, ensuring nearby public alleyway use, and committing to build an environmentally sustainable hotel that could achieve LEED gold certification.

Planning officials expressed confidence the changes will minimize any harmful traffic impacts. For example, Masa Alkire, principal planner for the city, stated that revisions will reduce traffic emanating from the building by 60% on South Santa Monica Boulevard compared to the original plan.

Reflecting on the project a day after the meeting, Bosse told the Beverly Hills Courier that the Cheval Blanc hotel could have a historic and far-reaching impact.

“I felt we were creating the next 100 years and the future, and it took all of us to create that,” Bosse said. “For me, it was a monumental and exciting moment.”

First proposed over two years ago, the project designed by architect Peter Marino features 109 rooms, a ground floor restaurant open to the public, a second-floor restaurant only available to hotel guests, and a third-floor private club.

The project sprawls over almost 1.3 acres and features a design of varying building heights, with the highest point sloping to 115 feet. A subterranean garage plans to provide 139 parking spaces.

LVMH has argued to city residents and officials that the hotel plus restaurant, fitness center and private club stands at the pinnacle of modern luxury and will serve as a new hub for Rodeo Drive.

Anish Melwani, Chairman and CEO of LVMH North America, called the development, “A new, modern anchor for Rodeo Drive,” at the Council meeting.

The executive noted that the luxury hotel would follow a similar hotel that opened a year ago in Paris by LVMH.

Wearing shiny, black leather, Peter Marino himself also addressed Council members. The New York-based architect stated that he began his involvement with the city, “by dating a beautiful woman from Beverly Hills and marrying her. She went to Westlake in 1983, and I lived here for several years.”

Marino added that he has already designed six different boutiques presently along Rodeo Drive.

“I’ve got a lot of my life invested here,” he said.

As for the project, Marino mentioned the aesthetic and practical chances he was taking, including having each of the building’s 162 windows be of a different size.

Marino also carried into Council chambers a square block of a French limestone, Luget. The building will be made out of Luget, which, Marino said, “ages beautifully.”

“I’m very fond of it, as was Louis the 11th, the 14th and the 15th,” Marino said of the stone.

The architect also discussed publicly visible art that would occupy the building lobby, including a Sol LeWitt mural.

“Even if you can’t afford a room, you can enjoy all the artwork,” Marino said.

During multiple, lengthy public comment periods, residents expressed their enthusiastic support for LVMH and Marino’s vision.

“Our organization is very excited for this project,” testified Julie Wagner, CEO of Beverly Hills’ Conference and Visitors Bureau. “It will cement our place as a global leader in luxury hospitality.”

Another proponent was Joseph Fuchs, organizer at United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America. Led by Matt Construction, a Los Angeles-based general contractor, project construction is expected to last up to 38 months and include as many as 500 construction jobs.

“We urge you to support the Cheval Blanc project to create good-paying jobs for residents of Beverly Hills and Los Angeles,” Fuchs said.

The lone public dissenter was from Unite Here Local 11, whose members include Southern California hotel workers. The union’s stated objection was not that Cheval Blanc was going to have a non-union hotel workforce. The developer declined to say whether it anticipated unionized staff. Rather, it was that the hotel would indirectly add to the region’s affordable housing crisis, and put Beverly Hills behind in its state requirements for affordable housing.

Putting housing into the North Rodeo Drive commercial area would be inconsistent with the city’s overall planning, argued Ryan Gohlich, the city’s Director of Community Development. Gohlich noted that in 2021 the city had expanded the amount of land zoned for housing, but North Rodeo Drive was not included in that.

Mirisch expressed skepticism about putting affordable housing on Rodeo Drive, which he called the “most expensive land in Southern California.”

But the council member said that he would like to see a development agreement include a provision for affordable housing elsewhere in Beverly Hills, which could perhaps house the Cheval Blanc’s prospective construction or hotel workers.

In explaining his dissent, Mirisch said the height was inconsistent with the rest of Rodeo Drive. He also called for additional conditions on the hotel, such as LVMH potentially supplying some of its company-owned art for an art museum, or the hotel holding civic events. ●

The Beverly Hills Library Launches Reel Conversations

The Beverly Hills Public Library is kicking off a documentary film series called Reel Conversations on Oct. 2 in the library auditorium at 1 p.m. The three documentary films in the series provide an opportunity to meet with filmmakers and ask questions.

“Reel Conversations provides information to our community about unique stories of diversity and inclusion and facilitate conversations around these issues. These are outstanding and award-winning documentaries which explore important issues in today’s society,” said Beverly Hills Public Library Administrator Karen Buth.

The first film of the series, “Orchestrating Change,” is a film about the world’s only orchestra for people living with mental illness. The Q&A session with the filmmaker will follow the screening, and will include the founders of the orchestra and musician featured in the film.

Screening on Oct. 23 is “Lives Well Lived,” a film encompassing over 3,000 years of experience where diverse people share their secrets and insights to living a meaningful life. And, on Nov. 6, “Far East Deep South” is an immigrant story, a Southern story, and an American story about a family in search of their roots.

To register, email reference@beverlyhills.org, or call 310-288-2244. Free parking is available in the Civic Center parking facility adjacent to the library. ●

Astrology

BY HOLIDAY MATIS

ARIES (March 21-April 19). Because people gather comfortably around you, you'll be the glue that makes everyone work together. It's a point of pride when you can connect people who can help each other. In a way, it makes you an architect of fate.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20). The same argument seems to flare up on the regular, but you'll change something about it this time so that it won't come back around. Probably you'll acknowledge the validity in both sides, and everyone will agree to disagree.

GEMINI (May 21-June 21). Dreams can come true without a plan, a team, a budget or a timeline; however, your dream has a better chance with all these elements in place. You can start with any element and they'll all progress together.

CANCER (June 22-July 22). When people want your assistance, you're apt to spring into action. Some you help really are needy. Maybe they even have more than you; it just so happens that they also want more and ask for more.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22). You have time for whatever you make time for. There are things you want to do that you haven't figured out how to make happen, but you'll definitely find a way when it's a priority for you.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22). A relationship is like an ecosystem. You'll look for the same qualities in a relationship that you do in other environments: loveliness, livability and affordability. In relationships you pay with your emotions and your attention.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23). You'll bring energy to your interactions because you want them to be memorable. What can you do that will bring the unexpected charge? It's worth it to come up with a few surprises, especially with familiar people.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 21). The hoop is held out before you. Should you jump through? This one looks easy, after all. Of course, once you pass the first test, the hoop will be raised higher in a game that will continue for as long as you participate in it.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21). You have more control than most people over your own charisma, and you're able to turn on the charm at will. You don't like to shine too brightly too much of the time because you want it to mean more when you go full wattage.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19). Something magical happens as you put your own agenda on the back burner to advance the goal of another. You'll take on the challenge with relaxed confidence. You won't be paid in dollars, but you'll be compensated.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18). It will take a beat or two to sync up with a loved one's groove, but once you get in step, you'll take on the day like pros. You're learning to trust each other, which will make for stellar teamwork.

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20). For you, it's not enough to feel social responsibility; you have to act on it to make things better. You're always looking out for anyone who could use help, and today you'll notice a need worthy of your attention.

This week meet Jessica, the featured puppy for adoption. She's a 1-year-old, 10-pound Jack Russell terrier mix and needs a new home. To inquire about Jessica, please contact Shelter of Hope at 805-379-3538.

intervened. He wasn't able to detain the suspects but recovered some of the stolen items in the process.

In the course of the ensuing investigation, officers utilized video surveillance footage from private and public cameras. They were able to identify a getaway vehicle and suspects involved in the case. Once suspects were identified, BHPD coordinated with FBI agents and the U.S. Attorney's office to secure arrest warrants against three individuals.

On Sept. 21, they served the three warrants simultaneously at three locations in Long Beach. The SWAT team made a safe entry into the locations, clearing at least one of the buildings with an interior drone before entering. Tactical operations ended with two arrests: a juvenile suspect and 20-year-old Deshon Bell, both from Long Beach. A 9mm handgun and a high-capacity magazine were recovered from Bell's residence. Authorities were also able to recover evidence that connected the suspects to the South Beverly Drive robbery.

The third suspect, 31-year-old Jimmy Lee Vernon, was arrested on the same day, overnight, by California Highway Patrol during a traffic stop in Barstow, California.

A fourth suspect connected to the crime, 36-year-old Ladelle Tharpe, had already been in custody prior to the Sept. 21 arrests. He was arrested for an unrelated offense.

According to a statement from the BHPD, the investigation continues and will conclude only when all the remaining suspects are arrested and booked. ●

Proclamation on Anniversary of Munich Massacre

The Beverly Hills City Council issued a proclamation recognizing the 50th Anniversary of the Munich Olympic games massacre which targeted Israeli athletes. The proclamation was given to Consul General of Israel, Hillel Newman and Deputy Consul General Amit Mekel. State of the City, from page 1

Launched in 2002, "An Evening with the Mayor" is also shaped by the times. In 2020, the gathering was canceled due to the COVID-19 pandemic. The following year, Mayor Robert Wunderlich spoke in terms of a city bouncing back.

Next week, that vibrant business environment will no doubt take center stage.

"This Council is very business friendly and has been for the last several years. That is something that cities around us cannot necessarily say. We have great projects in the works, including Cheval Blanc, One Beverly Hills and the Hudson Bay project," noted Johnson.

Bosse describes it in terms of "a wonderful story to tell about our city." Speaking to the Courier this week, she points to the city's recent qualification as a finalist for the Los Angeles County Economic Development Corporation "Most Business-Friendly City Award."

"There are so many other things, as well to talk about," she added.

"My Business with Bosse and 60-Second Shoutouts are all about giving a boost to the local businesses. We know that during the hardest times our community came together to support restaurants and retail here. Look at the OpenBH program with all the people dining on the streets now. We are known as a city where businesses feel at home, and I think we are a model for other cities in that regard," Bosse said.

Johnson couldn't agree more.

"We're definitely going to see continued growth in the city. We're looking forward to the holiday events, which will be strong. We're going to participate in Small Businesses Saturday after Thanksgiving. We may emphasize Brighton Way because there are many small businesses there."

Noting that the Beverly Hills Chamber of Commerce will celebrate its centennial in 2023, Johnson said the path is clear for many more engaging events.

Bosse, however, is clearly the reason for the overwhelming interest in "An Evening with the Mayor" next week.

"Lili is full of energy and has an optimistic attitude. She is very pro-business and people are attracted to that, without question," said Johnson. ●

Derrick Niederman, of Charleston, S.C., is a former teacher of mathematics at the College of Charleston. Currently he's finishing a statistics textbook that incorporates puzzles. Derrick is one of the longest-running crossword contributors to The Times, spanning 39 years from 1983 to now. This puzzle got its start when he noticed the curiosity of 114-Across, followed by 24-Across. The other theme examples are a result of a methodical search. — W.S.

The event was hosted by "The Late Late Show" host James Corden, and featured a start-studded outdoor concert with performances by Meghan Trainor, Gwen Stefani, and John Fogerty. Guests included Kris Jenner, Cindy Crawford and Rande Gerber, and Netflix CEO Ted Sarandos.

Festivities took place in multiple locations across The Wallis' Beverly Hills campus. The Azoffs were honored in a presentation in the Bram Goldsmith Theatre, followed by al fresco gourmet dining on the Promenade Terrace and the concert.

In their remarks during the celebration, event Co-Chairs Cathy and Mark Louchheim and Susan and Peter E. Strauss said, "We are delighted to co-chair The Wallis Delivers: An Evening with Shelli and Irving Azoff. This event is a special opportunity to celebrate Shelli and Irving, remarkable individuals whose spirits infuse everything they do, while also supporting The Wallis' community mission."

Wallis Annenberg and Lynda and Stewart Resnick were honorary co-chairs. As a token of appreciation, the Azoffs were gifted a Sing for Hope piano painted by American artists, the Haas Brothers from The Wallis. ●

The Wallis Appoints Two New Board Members

Pamela Beck

The Wallis Annenberg Center for the Performing Arts has announced the appointment of writer/producer Pamela Beck and business leader/philanthropist Sandra Barros Lowy to its Board of Directors.

"Pamela, who is deeply involved in the visual and performing arts in Los Angeles, continues a long legacy of service on the heels of her recent appointment as an Arts and Culture Commissioner for the city of Beverly Hills," said Chairman Michael Nemeroff, "and Sandra, a global supporter of the arts in Los Angeles and Europe, brings her creative flair and proven experience as a business leader and philanthropist. The Wallis' commitment to serving the greater Los Angeles community has never been more important, and we are fortunate that Sandra and Pamela have accepted these leadership roles on our Board of Directors." ●

Correction: A Sept. 4 article "New Electric Vehicle Set to Open in Beverly Hills" misidentified Faraday Future's representative before the city Planning Commission as Brian Cuyler. The representative's name was Bryan Shawley.

TRUST T.S. No.: 22-0132 Loan No.: Avraham Hassid Other: 2162070CAD APN: 4342-019-012 NOTICE OF TRUSTEE'S SALE UNDER DEED OF TRUST YOU ARE IN DEFAULT UNDER A DEED OF TRUST DATED 09/10/2012. UNLESS YOU TAKE ACTION TO PROTECT YOUR PROPERTY, IT MAY BE SOLD AT A PUBLIC SALE. IF YOU NEED AN EXPLANATION OF THE NATURE OF THE PROCEEDING AGAINST YOU, YOU SHOULD CONTACT A LAWYER. NOTICE is hereby given that Witkin & Associates, LLC, as trustee, or successor trustee, or substituted trustee, or as agent for the trustee, pursuant to the Deed of Trust executed by Avraham Hassid recorded 09/11/2012 as Instrument No. 20121357752 in book n.a., page n.a. of Official Records in the office of the County Recorder of Los Angeles County, California, and pursuant to the Notice of Default and Election to Sell thereunder recorded 6/17/2022 in Book n.a., Page n.a., as Instrument No. 20220644089 of said Official Records, WILL SELL on 10/13/2022 at 10:00AM behind the fountain located in Civic Center Plaza, 400 Civic Center Plaza, Pomona CA 91766 AT PUBLIC AUCTION TO THE HIGHEST BIDDER FOR CASH (payable at the time of sale in lawful money of the United States), all right, title and interest conveyed to and now held by it under said Deed of Trust in the property situated in said County and State hereinafter described: As more fully described on said Deed of Trust. The property address and other common designation, if any, of the real property described above is purported to be: 309 N. Foothill Road, Beverly Hills, CA 90210 The undersigned Trustee disclaims any liability for any incorrectness of the property address and other common designation, if any, shown herein. The total amount of the unpaid balance of the obligation secured by the property to be sold and reasonable estimated costs, expenses and advances at the time of the initial publication of the Notice of Sale is: $5,544,720.35* *The actual opening bid may be more or less than this estimate. (NOTE: If there is any type of pre-payment premium or other fee or charge that, under the terms of the secured obligation, becomes due on the date of sale, said fee or charges IS included in the above estimate). In addition to cash, the Trustee will accept a cashier's check drawn on a state or national bank, a check drawn by a state or federal credit union or a check drawn by a state or federal savings and loan association, savings association or savings bank specified in Section 5102 of the Financial Code and authorized to do business in this state. In the event tender other than cash is accepted, the Trustee may withhold the issuance of the Trustee's Deed until funds become available to the payee or endorsee as a matter of right. Said sale will be made, but without covenant or warranty, express or implied regarding title, possession or encumbrances, to satisfy the indebtedness secured by said Deed of Trust including advances authorized thereunder and also including, without way of limitation, the unpaid principal balance of the Note secured by said Deed of Trust together with interest thereon as provided in said Note, plus the fees, charges and expenses of the trustee and the trusts created by said Deed of Trust. THIS PROPERTY IS BEING SOLD IN AN "AS-IS" CONDITION. NOTICE TO POTENTIAL BIDDERS: If you are considering bidding on this property lien, you should understand that there are risks involved in bidding at a trustee auction. You will be bidding on a lien, not on the property itself. Placing the highest bid at a trustee auction does not automatically entitle you to free and clear ownership of the property. You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on the property. NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER: The sale date shown on this notice of sale may be postponed one or more times by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about trustee sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. If you wish to learn whether your sale date has been postponed, and, if applicable, the rescheduled time and date for the sale of this property, you may call (916) 939-0772 or visit this Internet Website WWW. ATIONWIDEPOSTING.COM, using the file number assigned to this case 22-0132. Information about postponements that are very short in duration or that occur close in time to the scheduled sale may not immediately be reflected in the telephone information or on the Internet Website. The best way to verify postponement information is to attend the scheduled sale. NOTICE TO TENANT: You may have a right to purchase this property after the trustee auction pursuant to Section 2924m of the California Civil Code. If you are an "eligible tenant buyer," you can purchase the property if you match the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction. If you are an "eligible bidder," you may be able to purchase the property if you exceed the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction. There are three steps to exercising this right of purchase. First, 48 hours after the date of the trustee sale, you can call (916) 939-0772, or visit this internet website WWW. ATIONWIDEPOSTING.COM, using the file number assigned to this case 22-0132 to find the date on which the trustee's sale was held, the amount of the last and highest bid, and the address of the trustee. Second, you must send a written notice of intent to place a bid so that the trustee receives it no more than 15 days after the trustee's sale. Third, you must submit a bid so that the trustee receives it no more than 45 days after the trustee's sale. If you think you may qualify as an "eligible tenant buyer" or "eligible bidder," you should consider contacting an attorney or appropriate real estate professional immediately for advice regarding this potential right to purchase. FOR SALES INFORMATION AND STATUS 24 HOURS A DAY, SEVEN DAYS A WEEK, GO TO: WWW. ATIONWIDEPOSTING.COM OR CALL 916-939-0772 ADDITIONAL INFORMATION, DISCLOSURES AND CONDITIONS OF SALE: (1) At the time of sale, the opening bid by the beneficiary may not represent a full credit bid. The beneficiary reserves the right, during the auction, to increase its credit bid incrementally up to a full credit bid. The beneficiary may also bid over and above its credit bid with cash, cashier's checks or cash equivalents. (2) The Trustee's Deed Upon Sale (TDUS) will not be issued to the successful bidder until the bidder's payment has been deposited in the trustee's bank and cleared (all holds released). The bidder may have to take additional actions as required by trustee's bank in order to facilitate the deposit and clearance of bidder's funds. (3) If, prior to the issuance of the TDUS, the trustee shall become aware of any deficiency in the foreclosure process, or if the trustee becomes aware of any bankruptcy or other legal issue affecting the validity of the foreclosure process, or if the trustee becomes aware of any bankruptcy or other legal issue affecting the validity of the foreclosure process, then, after consultation with its attorneys, the trustee, in its sole discretion, may decline to issue the TDUS and return the bidder's funds, without interest. If, subsequent to the issuances of the TDUS, the trustee shall become aware of any deficiency in the foreclosure process, or if the trustee becomes aware of any bankruptcy or other legal issue affecting the validity of the foreclosure process, then, after consultation with its attorneys, the trustee, in its sole discretion, may rescind the TDUS pursuant to Civil Code Section 1058.5(b) and return the bidder's funds, without interest. (4) When conducted, the foreclosure sale is not final until the auctioneer states "sold". Any time prior thereto, the sale may be canceled or postponed at the discretion of the trustee or the beneficiary. A bid by the beneficiary may not result in a sale of the property. All bids placed by the auctioneer are on behalf of the seller/beneficiary. This communication may be considered as being from a debt collector. To the extent your original obligation was discharged or is subject to an automatic stay of bankruptcy under Title 11 of the United States Code, this notice is for compliance and/or informational purposes only and does not constitute an attempt to collect a debt or to impose personal liability for such obligation. However, a secured party may retain rights under its security instruments including the right to foreclose its lien.
