Overwhelming Response to Holidays at Greystone Event

Holidays at Greystone returns this weekend.

BY MICHELE RAPHAEL

The highly anticipated Holidays at Greystone is back again this year and promises to be a very festive event for families ready to celebrate the season. The annual fest, which opened up to reservations in early November, received an overwhelming response, selling out in less than a week, according to organizers. More than 1,600 guests had already made reservations and about 400 people were signed up on the waitlist, as of press time. For those who are lucky to have a scheduled reservation, the event will take place this weekend, Sat., Dec. 3, and Sun., Dec. 4, from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., at Greystone Mansion & Gardens. The iconic building and grounds will be transformed into a bedecked indoor-outdoor space, with interactive experiences, multicultural themes and decorations, live music, caroling, dancing, craft-making, and storytelling, and a show in the newly restored Greystone Theatre by the popular Bob Baker Marionette Theater company. Santa and Mrs. Claus and their sleigh will be there, too, with lots of opportunities for photos or for children to share wish lists. See GREYSTONE, page 13

Bosse Signs Historic Declaration at Antisemitism Summit

BY ANA FIGUEROA

Mayor Lili Bosse has signed an historic declaration in Athens, Greece, as part of the second annual Mayors Summit Against Antisemitism. Bosse joined municipal leaders from 53 cities and 23 countries at the summit this week. The event is co-hosted by the Combat Antisemitism Movement and the Center for Jewish Impact in partnership with the Jewish Federations of North America. The inaugural Mayors Summit took place in 2021 as a virtual event hosted by the city government of Frankfurt, Germany. This year's event is in person. Mayor Kostas Bakoyannis, the summit's chair, noted the significance of the Athens setting. "Athens is the birthplace of democracy, and the significant rise of hate and antisemitism we are witnessing around the world is a threat to our cherished democratic values. That is why this event is so important and timely. We see an insidious spread of antisemitism, so there is a need to fight this scourge at the local level as well as to see how these trends are global and learn best practices from each other towards See ANTISEMITISM, page 10

State Rejects Beverly Hills' Housing Plan

BY MATTHEW BLAKE

Beverly Hills lacks an adequate plan to do its part in addressing California's affordable housing crisis. That was the opinion of a Nov. 28 letter by the state's Department for Housing and Community Development, or HCD, which for the second time rejected the city of Beverly Hills' state-mandated housing element. Once a sleepy document broadly chronicling a city's next eight years of housing policy, "A paper-pushing exercise," said UC Davis Land Use Law Professor Chris Elmendorf, the housing element has become vitally important to Beverly Hills' near-term future. That's because Beverly Hills is now required under the state's Regional Housing Needs Assessment to produce 3,104 units of affordable housing between 2021 to 2029, compared to a requirement of just three sites total from 2013 to 2021. Also, large-scale developers are eying Beverly Hills and other noncompliant cities as the site of their next residential mega-project. A state law known as the builder's remedy lets developers build what they wish in these cities if it includes a 20% affordable housing set aside. The letter from Paul McDougall, senior program manager at HCD, was addressed to Timmi Tway, director of the city's See HOUSING PLAN, page 13

Masks Recommended Indoors Once Again

BY BIANCA HEYWARD

With dipping temperatures and the holiday season in full swing, Los Angeles County is seeing a sharp rise in new COVID-19 cases this week, according to the Los Angeles County Department of Public Health (Public Health). New cases have almost doubled from one day to the next, with 2,370 cases reported on Nov. 29 followed by 4,353 on Nov. 30 and 4,493 on Dec. 1. The rate of daily increases has been steadily rising in recent weeks. The seven-day daily average rate of people testing positive for virus is 13.4%, up from 10.8% last week. SUMMER STYLE MAGAZINE 2023

Summer STYLE 2023 will feature a cover profile of Mike Amiri, founder, CEO and creative director of the fashion line AMIRI whose flagship store opened on Rodeo Drive in 2020. The Beverly Hills High School graduate now helms a global luxury fashion house with stores in Las Vegas, New York, Miami, Tokyo, Shanghai and Dubai. Additionally, Summer STYLE 2023 will include a preview of summer blockbusters; the latest high-tech beauty treatments; hidden art gems of Beverly Hills hotels; top nature hikes around the city and “must-haves” for the summer.

Advertisements receive double exposure for enhanced value and client reach. STYLE Magazine is printed on glossy, heavy-coated stock and distributed (5,000 copies) in Beverly Hills and environs, including on Rodeo Drive, five-star hotels, fine dining establishments, high-profile events and more. STYLE Magazine is also within the pages of the Beverly Hills Courier. The Courier reaches approximately 90,000 readers in Beverly Hills and surrounding cities. Summer and Holiday STYLE will appear in June and November issues of the Courier, respectively.

STYLE magazine is also available on the Courier’s website, beverlyhillscourier.com, which receives approximately 10 million impressions a year.

THE COURIER IN THE NEWS

New York Times 01/19/2021

“ In a video filmed in the crowd directly in front of the Capitol, Ms. Bisignano states her first and last name, place of residence and Instagram account. In a separate video, she identifies her business while speaking through a bullhorn to the crowd, according to the F.B.I. She appears to struggle with a police officer who tries to expel her and others, and later raises her fist in what appears to be a gesture of defiance, the F.B.I. said.

“We need strong, angry patriots to help our boys,” Ms. Bisignano says on video, according to the F.B.I., as she calls for gas masks and weapons. Nearby, rioters are physically assaulting police officers.

Later, she confirmed to The Beverly Hills Courier that she had entered the Capitol. ”

LA Times 01/19/2021

Los Angeles Times

“The description of the videos contradicts an account Bisignano gave the Beverly Hills Courier last week. In it, she acknowledged she entered the Capitol but said she was experiencing a panic attack and needed to find somewhere safe.

“I couldn’t breathe. I was having a panic attack. I needed air,” she told the newspaper. “Every time I opened my eyes, they were burning. My mouth was burning. Everything was burning, and I couldn’t breathe.

“I was caught up, I was scared, I was excited,” Bisignano told the Courier. “A guy said to say that over the megaphone. I don’t even remember saying it.” ”

CBS LA 01/19/2021

“ Bisignano owns Gina’s Eyelashes And Skincare. Last week, Bisignano confirmed to the Beverly Hills Courier that she traveled to Washington, D.C., where she found herself among the mob who stormed the Capitol building on Jan. 6.

In a cell phone video obtained by the Courier, a woman believed to be Bisignano holds a megaphone on a ledge of the Capitol and yells, “Everybody, we need gas masks, we need weapons. We need strong, angry patriots to help our boys, they don’t want to leave. We need protection.” ”

KTLA: 01/19/2021

“ The FBI also reviewed an article published in the Beverly Hills Courier on Jan. 14 in which Bisignano recalled her experiences at the Capitol.

She described the scene as a “war zone,” and said she was near a man who broke windows in the Capitol.

Bisignano told the newspaper she was unarmed and described her role in the riot as a passive one, but she ended up being pepper sprayed and experienced a panic attack.

“I couldn’t breathe. I was having a panic attack. I needed air. Every time I opened my eyes, they were burning. My mouth was burning. Everything was burning, and I couldn’t breathe,” Bisignano said in the interview.

Upon returning to California, Bisignano said people began commenting on her business’s Yelp page with photos of her at the Capitol.

“Having watched Gina at the 01/06/21 riot, I do not feel safe coming here again,” one review read.

Bisignano decided to contact the FBI herself.

“My life is over, I’m going to jail,” she told the Courier. “I’m going to lose my son.” ”

Los Angeles Magazine 01/19/2021

“ Local eyelash salon owner Gina Bisignano, 52, was arrested in Beverly Hills on Tuesday and charged with damaging or destroying government property, obstruction of an official proceeding, and violent entry and disorderly conduct on capitol grounds, according to the U.S. Attorney’s Office. In an interview with the Beverly Hills Courier, Bisignano reportedly admitted she’d entered the building, but that she left when she was stricken with a panic attack. ”

Daily Beast 01/19/2021

CAPITOL RIOTS COVID-19 CHEAT SHEET POLITICS ENTERTAINMENT MEDIA WORLD HALF FULL

“ In an interview with the Beverly Hills Courier, Bisignano admitted she went to the Capitol with one other person, “stating she felt called upon by President Donald Trump to travel to D.C. to change the outcome of the election, which she believes was stolen,” the complaint states.

Claiming she got “caught up” in the moment during the riots, Bisignano said she witnessed fighting during the siege—but insisted, without offering a shred of evidence, that the violence was “antifa and BLM.” ”
